

Retired Missionary - Church Planting Associate

Position Overview:

As a Retired Missionary Church Planting Associate, you will leverage your years of experience and expertise to support and enhance our organization's church planting efforts worldwide. This role offers a unique opportunity to continue serving in ministry while enjoying the flexibility of retirement.

Key Responsibilities:

Mentorship and Training

- Provide guidance and mentorship to new and developing missionaries
- Conduct training sessions on cross-cultural ministry and church planting strategies

Advisory Role

- Serve as an advisor to church planting teams, offering insights based on your extensive field experience
- Participate in strategic planning sessions for new and ongoing church planting initiatives

Support and Encouragement

- Offer prayer support and encouragement to active missionaries and church planters[8]
- Conduct regular check-ins with field teams to provide emotional and spiritual support

Resource Development

- Contribute to the creation of training materials and resources for church planting
- Assist in curriculum development for missionary preparation programs

Short-Term Assignments

- Participate in short-term mission trips to support ongoing church planting efforts
- Fill temporary gaps in field leadership as needed

Networking and Advocacy

- Represent the organization at missions conferences and church events
- Engage with supporters and potential partners to promote church planting initiatives

Qualifications:

- Extensive experience as a career missionary, preferably in church planting
- Strong understanding of cross-cultural ministry and global missions

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to travel occasionally for short-term assignments
- Passion for mentoring and developing the next generation of missionaries
- Alignment with our organization's statement of faith and mission

Time Commitment and Compensation:

This is a flexible, part-time position tailored to retirees. Hours and responsibilities can be adjusted based on your availability and the organization's needs. While this is primarily a volunteer role, some expenses related to ministry activities may be reimbursed[2][4].

Join us in this rewarding opportunity to continue your missionary calling and make a lasting impact on global church planting efforts. Your wealth of experience and wisdom are invaluable assets in furthering God's kingdom work around the world.
